ST. LOUISE ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Another St. Louise alumni highlight—The faith-inspired art of students from 12 LA Catholic high schools is being showcased at a special exhibit at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels. The exhibit will be up through April 30th.

Chloe Castillo (Class of 2021), Thomas Lam (Class of 2020), and Jaime Vasquez (Class of 2020) were three of five students chosen from Bishop Amat High School to have their artwork exhibited for six weeks at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels as part of “The Robert Graham Memorial Art Show”. Each piece of art includes a short write-up written by the student about what spirituality means to them.

The annual Robert Graham Memorial Student Art Exhibit was officially unveiled Sunday, March 19, at the cathedral. The exhibit features works of art from 60 high school students, who received a blessing and certificates from Archbishop José H. Gomez at the event.

The art exhibit celebrates the value that Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our Church, communities, and nation.

The exhibit is named after the late Robert Graham, a Mexican-born American sculptor of international fame who was based in Los Angeles. He died in 2008 and left behind a legacy in Catholic art, having created the Great Bronze Doors of the Cathedral among other notable public art displays. Since 2017, this program is curated by Noriko Fujinami, member of Fine-Arts Committee for the Cathedral and Robert Graham Studio Director.

We are proud of these three St. Louise alumni! GO VIKINGS!
