Catechetical Sunday 2021...

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 19, 2021 under the theme of "Say the Word and My Soul Shall Be Healed."

On this day, catechists are formally commissioned for ministry to the community. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each baptized person plays in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

Our parish teachers and staff will participate in the 9:00 am this coming Sunday Mass, Sept. 19th. Please keep them all in your prayers!

Grandparent's Day

On the first Sunday after Labor Day, we celebrate grandparents. This holiday began in 1979 when then President Jimmy Carter proclaimed that day as National Grandparents' Day. According to its founders, the purpose of the day is threefold: To honor grandparents, to give grandparents an opportunity to show love for their children's children and to help children become aware of the strength, information and guidance older people can offer.

In the 1970's there was a TV show called The Waltons. It depicted a multi-generational family in rural Virginia during the Great Depression and World War II. It centered around 5 people: the son, John Walton, Jr. (John-boy), his parents John and Olivia Walton and his paternal grandparents Zebulon "Zeb" and Esther Walton. I mention this show because of the way it depicted the grandparents. They weren't clueless, they weren't smart-mouthed, they were wise and shared a lifetime of experience. When actress Ellen Corby had a stroke, her character Esther continued on the show struggling with the consequences of a stroke, slurred speech, and difficulty walking. The couple were depicted as dignified. It would be great if all of Hollywood could present older persons in this manner in today's TV shows and movies.

We learn a story of The Blessed Virgin Mary's parents, St. Saint Joachim, and St. Anne. The grandfather of Jesus, felt estranged from those around him because he had no children; his life, like that of his wife Anne's, was considered useless. So, the Lord sent an angel to console him, and he heard, "Joachim, Joachim! The Lord has heard your insistent prayer" and Mary was born shortly after.

An aspect I like about Grandparents' Day is that it is reciprocal. It both honors grandparents and also allows grandparents to show their love for their grandchildren. Another purpose of the day is to honor the wisdom of those who have a lifetime of experience to share.

In the Catholic faith, we see the affect grandparents have on their grandchildren. Today's parents are very busy. Most homes are two income homes, and it is grandparents who often are the primary caregivers. I frequently see grandparents, often grandmothers, in Church with their young grandchildren, helping them make the sign of the cross, teaching them the Our Father, and make the appropriate responses during the Mass. These early lessons will have an impact on the children's faith journey. Grandparents are often the family members who protect the traditions of our faith. As caregivers they are important players in teaching their grandchildren. This includes how they live their faith.

Pope Francis created a World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly in 2021 that will be celebrated every year on the fourth Sunday in July. At a celebration of the first World Day, Pope Francis said, "Dear Grandfathers and Grandmothers, Dear Elderly Friends, "I am with you always" (Mt 28:20): this is the promise the Lord made to his disciples before he ascended into heaven. They are the words that he repeats to you today... The whole Church is close to you... and cares about you, loves you and does not want to leave you alone!"

Enjoy the day with your parents and grandparents, children. This is a special day .

DID YOU KNOW?

What to do if you are worried about family abduction

Family abduction happens when a child is taken or hidden by one family member from another, against custody or visitation rights. In some circumstances, family abduction is considered a crime, and can be prosecuted. If you are worried about a possible family abduction, you can take action.
Have a valid custody agreement that outlines who can see or take your child, and when. Advise your child's school or daycare about custody arrangements, including who can and cannot pick up your child. For more information, visit missingkids.org/theissues/familyabduction.

For more information on other ways to keep kids safe,
contact Linda Filkins, the Parish Safeguard Committee
Chairperson at (626) 214-7846 or the Archdiocesan
Safeguard the Children Office at (213) 637-7227.

For particular help, call the Victims Assistance Office at (213) 637-7650.
